

CHAPTER 15

Study Guide
ABNORMAL BEHAVIOR

pp. 364-369

Learning Key Terms

1. Write the meaning of the following key terms:
DSM III-Revised
DSM IV

Understanding Important Ideas

2. What are the primary bases for defining "abnormal" behavior? Provide an example of abnormal behavior in terms of each of the descriptions you offer.

pp. 369-374

Learning Key Terms

1. Write the meaning of the following key terms:
anxiety
phobia panic disorder
post-traumatic stress disorder
somatoform disorder dissociative disorder
psychogenic amnesia psychogenic fugue
multiple personality

Understanding Important Ideas

2. What are the distinguishing features of the anxiety-based disorders?

3. How do these relate to somatoform and dissociative disorders?

pp. 374-378

Learning Key Terms

1. Write the meaning of the following key terms:
 - major depressive disorder
 - bipolar disorder
 - manic-type reaction
 - depressive-type reaction

Understanding Important Ideas

2. What are mood disorders, and how are they classified as such?

pp. 378-383

Learning Key Terms

1. Write the meaning of the following key terms:
 - schizophrenia
 - delusion
 - hallucination
 - double-bind
 - antisocial personality

Understanding Important Ideas

2. Does a schizophrenic have a split personality? Is it related to a multiple personality disorder?

3. What are the factors that lead to schizophrenia?

pp. 383-385

Learning Key Terms

1. Write the meaning of the following key terms:

- psychological dependence
- addiction
- tolerance
- withdrawal

Understanding Important Ideas

2. What are the differences between drug dependence, drug addiction, and drug tolerance?

pp. 386-388

Understanding Important Ideas

1. What is DSM-IV?
